

COMPETENT PERSON TRAIN THE TRAINER – 40 hrs

Pre-requisite: Competent Person Training

Designed for competent persons who are responsible for training in-house personnel to the level of competent person, this customized 40 hour course instructs students how to teach their customized curriculum to an in-house team. Students will learn how to teach the competent person subjects, how to develop customized case studies and how to interpret adult learning styles and personality profiles. This course will also assist students to develop customized learning and retention activities. The Competent Person training course is a pre-requisite to this program.